green hills, and its duty-free shopping is as good as the cuisine.

Charterers in the Leeward can stop at St. John, which has 28 miles south of St. Martin. There are no beaches on this tiny island, but the highlights are great for day hikers: a chapel, insurance, and hares (a small island with a few cows and a few chickens).

If you need a drink, go to St. John. I found it at the historic Lend Nelson hotel in English Harbor. An adorable bar for exploring the island. A drive around Antigua offers magnificent coastal views and sandy beaches.

The craft available by the week are all custom-designed boats, some of which are owned and sailed by the Mooring. They range from a 37' boat ideal for one couple (about $2,000 with all costs, a skipper, insurance, and hares) to a 45' boat for two couples (about $3,500 with all costs, a skipper, insurance, and hares).

For expert sailors, the boat is a 45' boat for two couples (about $3,500 with all costs, a skipper, insurance, and hares).
